

Summer Vacation Safety Tips

Don't let your house broadcast that you are away. Put a temporary stop on your mail and newspaper delivery.

Don't make it easy for others to enter. In addition to locking all your doors, lock your windows as well. Don't forget that basement hatchway or garage door.

Don't give them help – put away yard tools, ladders, and patio furniture which can all be used to gain entry.

Let your friendly neighbor know your travel plans, contact information and ask them to keep an eye out. And then offer to do the same for them.

Leading up to and while away, stay off of social media. Posting pictures, checking in to travel spots online, and status updates all broadcast that you are away. Post your pics when you get back.

Let your family and a friend know your itinerary and contact number. It's especially a good idea to let them know your traveling dates and the routes you will be taking. Give them a copy of your passport too.

Keep your cash and credit cards in different places. Never carry your credit cards, cash, and passport at the same time. Keep a copy of your passport in a 2nd place with you while traveling.

While you are out for the day, keep a copy of your passport with you and leave the original locked in your hotel safe.
